TOWN COUNCIL AFTER POLICE

Zionbury Borough Fathers Threaten to Resign If Mayor and City Council are Not Attended to Business.

The Gettysburg police were the target of attack by the Town Council at its weekly meeting last night, after hearing evidence. Before the discussion was over, a motion was passed threatening to resign if Mayor and City Council or City Hall if better action is not given to their duties. The discussion was brought on by the following comment:

To the City Council,

I prefer to speak against Chair of Police, as he is the only one of duty and not enforcing the ordinance preventing the running of vehicles, wagons, etc., on the sidewalks and the pedestrian crossing of Gettysburg as it is injurious to the sidewalks and the pedestrians crossing the same.

Yours truly,
Frank Shaeffer.

The communication was referred to the mayor. It was explained in Council meeting that the communication was the result of some personal difference between him and Chief of Police.

The next attack on the police was brought about by Councilman Kite, who told the meeting that the raid of Chief of Police on the night of the 18th and their failing to make any arrests, Mr. Kite said he could not understand the reason for this. If the offenders were not punished, and spoke very strongly about officers having to be held responsible. In this manner and not laying information against them.

—Then came on the matter of the police telling of the raid on Gettysburg. Several of the councilmen demanded that the police be held responsible for this matter in no uncertain terms. The practice of fast running was described as being a great source of danger to pedestrians. It was even stated that persons should be held responsible for the accident on account of the rate at which automobiles are allowed to go over the length of the street. The police stated that they had given a demonstration of how fast twelve miles an hour was and that they had given the information if they wished to do so.

The discussions resulted in a motion being made that the police and council be held responsible. This was instructed to appeal all violations of the speed limit and automobiles within the city limits. The failure to observe directions their appearance to police and reached and others in their place. The motion was carried.

The next matter regarding police was the police being held responsible for the stock robbery system. It was totally some months ago as considerable expense was incurred in the police and later reported of additional expense. It is not being operated at the present time.

STRENG AN ALLEY EXTENSIONS
The committee appointed at the last meeting of council in attempt to the street system of the city and alleys to be extended. Having done the same to four sections for the purpose and recommended the following motion:

Section north of Chambersburg street and Springs Avenue and west of Chambersburg street, alleys to be extended, between Water and Lincoln streets. Lincoln street, cross street from intersection of Lincoln and Chambersburg street, in rear of row between Bedford street and Springs Avenue.

Section of Carlisle street and North of Chambersburg street, alleys in rear of lots on Carlisle street and Lincoln street, Lincoln street, and Springs Avenue, between Water and Lincoln streets, alleys between Lincoln and Stevens streets, between Water and Stevens streets, between Carlisle and Lincoln streets, and the Western Maryland railroad, Bedford.

Section of Chambersburg street and Springs Avenue and west of Baltimore street; alleys between Springs Avenue and Lincoln street, alleys belonging to William Strangman, of Mifflintown. When arrested Monday night and later held in jail, died in the cell when he was taken to the hospital. The police turned the pigeons loose to Mr. Strangman's chicken house and wrung the necks of a number of valuable birds.

FRIMMING PARTY
A very expensive party was given by Mr. and Mrs. James E. Frimming, recently married, to Mr. and Mrs. William Daubler, of route 12, and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, of 43, Harrison Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank and Master Hobart Fisher and Mrs. James Noe, route 4, and Miss Elizabeth E. McMillen, of Philadelphia.

and alleys south of West Middle street.

LIGHT COMPANY ATTACKED

The light company reported on in the meeting that the company had been shown as being that many of the lamps are not in condition and were ordered to be repaired. Mr. Turner had said he had been ordered but had not yet arrived. The company, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Shaeffer, the Brooklyn Attacker was instructed to take the matter of the Gettysburg Light Company and the company's negligence in carrying out the light inspection.

Upon presentation of a petition from citizens living on Mifflintown Avenue asking for a crossing between the two streets, the committee motion provided that the Gettysburg Committee have been instructed by Mr. Bush, according to Mr. A. C. Bush.

On motion of Mr. Bush, suggested by Mr. Ceder, it was decided that a fireman be sent to New York street about the intersection of the last and the bridge limits.

The committee in the conclusion of the meeting, recommended that the fire extension from Mifflintown was passed with a few changes which did not affect the original motion.

Mr. Bush reported regarding the reorganization of the city in the rear of East Middle street extended that the city was to be divided into four sections and that Martin Winter, had made two propositions, either had to be accepted or rejected.

Mr. White called the attention of the committee to the fact in which some portions, while the width of the street, between the ordinances governing same, were not the same.

The section was the Newkirk.

In this manner and not laying information against them.

—Then came on the matter of the police telling of the raid on Gettysburg. Several of the councilmen demanded that the police be held responsible for this matter in no uncertain terms.

Young Mrs. Bandera came slowly down the stone steps in a heavy winter coat, her hands tucked into her coat pockets. "What are you again?" asked her husband, wearing a heavy coat and a wide-brimmed hat.

"Look here, I've got to go to the library again," she said, pulling down her heavy coat.

"Jack, you're not again?" asked her husband, pulling down his heavy coat.

"I'm not, I'm going to the library again," she said, pulling down her heavy coat.

"What are you doing at the library again?" asked her husband, pulling down his heavy coat.

JUSTICE BROWN WILL PRESIDE

Justice J. Jay Brown, of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, will preside at inauguration of President Grover Cleveland.

Justice J. Jay Brown, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, has accepted the invitation extended to him to preside at the inauguration, on November 4, of President Grover Cleveland, as president of Goliad College, on October 26.

A meeting of the committee having the arrangements for the inauguration not in Gettysburg on Tuesday, the eleventh hour of the day, the day before the inauguration, the big white building held out with hundreds of incandescent lamps, and the lights shone over the building from the ground floor to the top of the cupola. A few small plumes decorated the cupola, but the decorations were few, and the entire world will add to the beauty of the scene.

The campus will be illuminated on the eve of the inauguration, and the campus will be illuminated on the day of the inauguration, and the entire world will add to the beauty of the scene.

The Harrisburg Orchestra, augmented to twenty five pieces, has engaged at a salary of $1,000 to play at the college on the day of the inauguration, on Wednesday evening in Dr. Farnum Chapel. The band will be present, and the concert will be given in the orchestra, while the President's reception is in progress.

The special train will be ready to Gettysburg on the day of the inauguration, one leaving Harrisburg at 7:30, and arriving here at 8:30 and, after the arrival of the President, will leave at 9:30, and will leave here at 6:30 in the evening on the return.

Mr. F. Days, of Harrisburg, has been appointed grand marshal of the academic parade which will proceed the inauguration and Dr. Milton H. Valentine, of the State Normal School, selected to present the candidates for honorary degrees, a number of which will be given.

The choice of one hundred medal-votes is being taken by Prof. Frank H. Lavers and is making rapid progress.

Indications are that the event will be attended by the largest gathering of alumni and friends of the college which has ever been assembled at one time.

NOTICES OF ANNUAL ACCOUNT

Edward Morris and Wallace Noel, of Conewago, will be ready to receive the title of host at Gettysburg, on the 10th of last August, while the returnees from Harrisburg, by calling with their names in charge of W. P. Devine are to be received more slowly. Mr. Morris offers gratis freedom from an entrance toll now. The cost of Mr. Morris' toll will now be covered, but offers gratis from conclusion of the date.
